PROJECTS

EtsAClone - Rails, PostgreSQL, JavaScript, React/Redux, HTML5, CSS3

- Built a CRUD single-page application with DRY, focused, independent, and reusable React components, and Flux architecture
- Implemented full-text search bar with PostgreSQL's PgSearch
- Improved scalability and performance by using Paperclip Ruby gem and Amazon's AWS S3 cloud storage bucket to remotely store images
- Implemented user authentication system by confirming the session user on the front-end and assigning session token on the back-end

!1010! - JavaScript, HTML5 Canvas

Link | Github | Highly addictive, Tetris-like puzzle game, inspired by 1010!

- Implemented game logic through game, display, board, block, and tile classes, leveraging prototypical inheritance and object-oriented programming design principles
- Created drag-drop functionality and implemented a seamless user interface by using event listeners to detect mouse movements

DOMiNodes - JavaScript

Github | Lightweight JavaScript library for DOM (Document Object Model) manipulation, inspired by jQuery

- Designed a lightweight library to implement DOM traversal, event handling, and AJAX requests
